

BARCELONA

June - November

Departures: Every Friday
3 nights / 4 days

Barcelona, the capital of Catalonia and the second largest city in Spain, is a cosmopolitan Mediterranean destination that seamlessly blends Roman architecture with medieval charm, while preserving the innovation of 20th-century modernism. Among its most important landmarks are the impressive works of architects Antoni Gaudí and Lluís Domènech i Montaner, many of which have been included in the UNESCO World Heritage list. The city's long history and economic strength have allowed it to develop a rich culture and distinct identity, reflected in its remarkable architectural and political heritage, as well as its continuous support of arts and literature.
